PRIMA'S 2019 RISK MANAGEMENT
WEBINAR SERIES

What Your Attorney Really Wants from Risk Management

(And What Risk Management Wants from Its Attorney)

2019 PRIMA Webinar Series

Presented by
J. Michael Billingsley
City Attorney for Kingsport, Tennessee
December 4, 2019

Legal Disclaimer

- Nothing in this presentation constitutes legal advice.
- It is for general information only, and no attorney-client relationship is created.
- Always contact your attorney should you have any specific questions about any legal matter.
- Never rely on this information as an alternative to legal advice from your attorney.
- Do not delay seeking legal advice, commence, or discontinue any legal action or disregard legal advice, due to information contained in this paper or presentation.

BALBOA PARK
BP
SAN DIEGO
NORFOLK
VIRGINIA

I don’t have to tell you that life is full of risks

Exceptions -
It’s like any relationship

What are your attorney's expectations of you? Do you know?

What are your expectations of your attorney? Does your attorney know?

Develop a relationship with your attorney

It helps to know each other

Establish responsibilities

Let your attorney know you can and will help, and then do it

The attorney is an advocate for the client. Sometimes this is the type of client the attorney gets

It’s all about teamwork

Work together to mitigate the impact of a claim, the sooner, the better

Alert your attorney to potential claims

Asking is better than not asking - When possible, ask before acting or trouble arises; don’t let it fester

Don't be afraid ask your attorney for assistance and advice

Consult, consult, consult !

Investigate

Conduct a thorough and appropriate investigation as soon as reasonably possible

Cna you raed this?

Yuo msut be raelly smrat if you can raed this?

The mnid deos not raed ervey lteter by istlef, but as a whole.

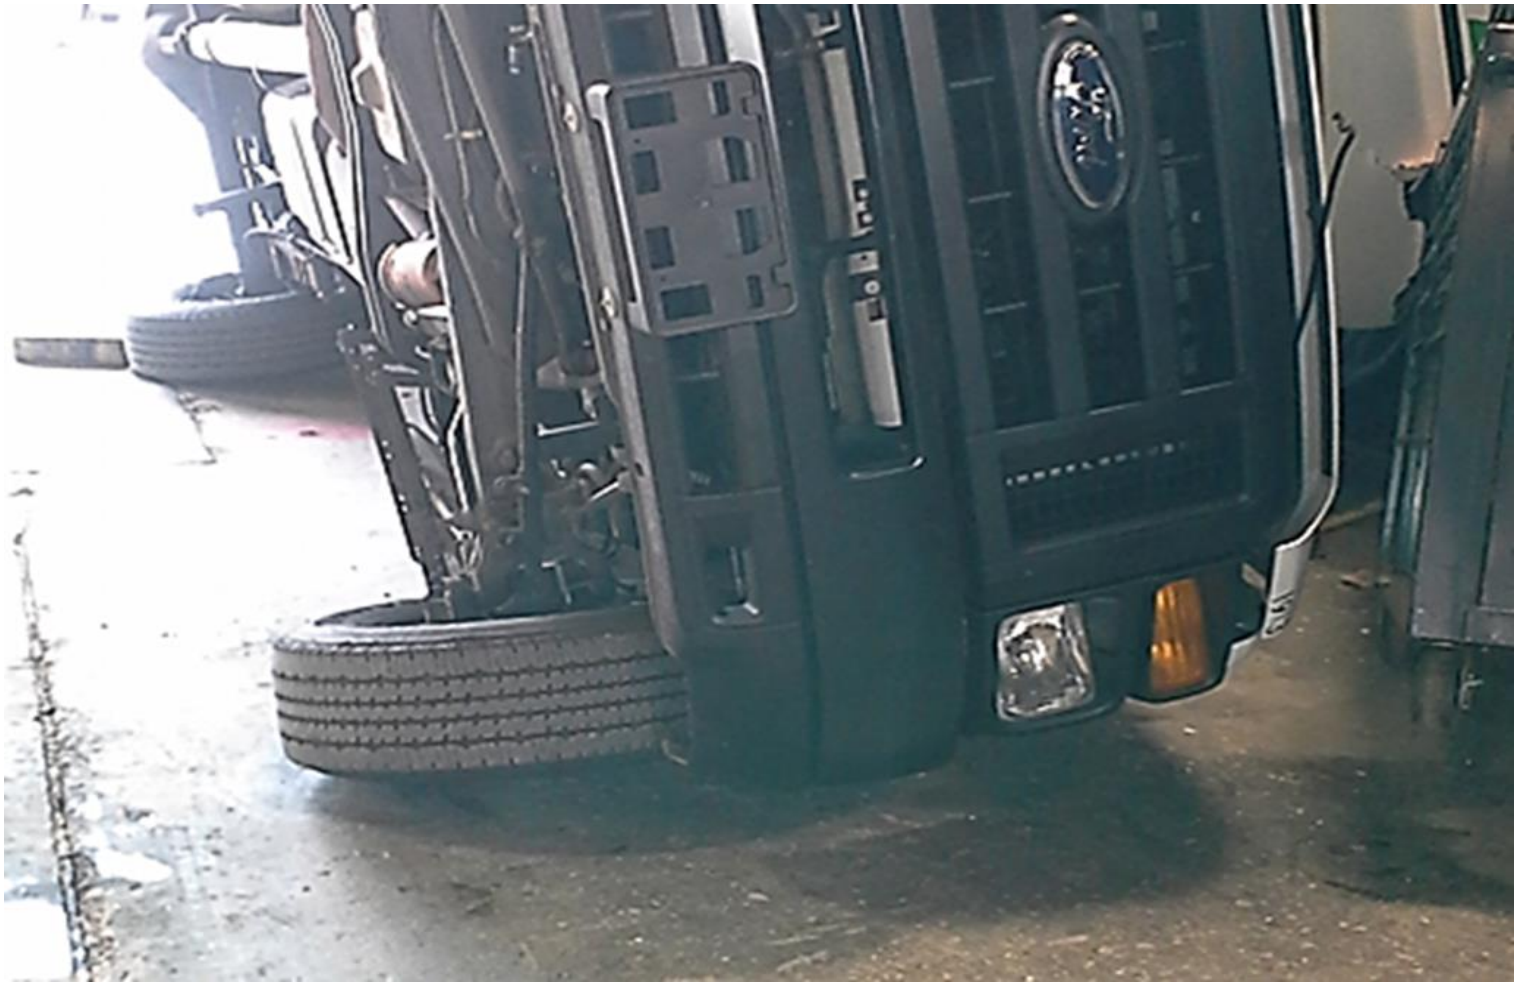

Who?

What?

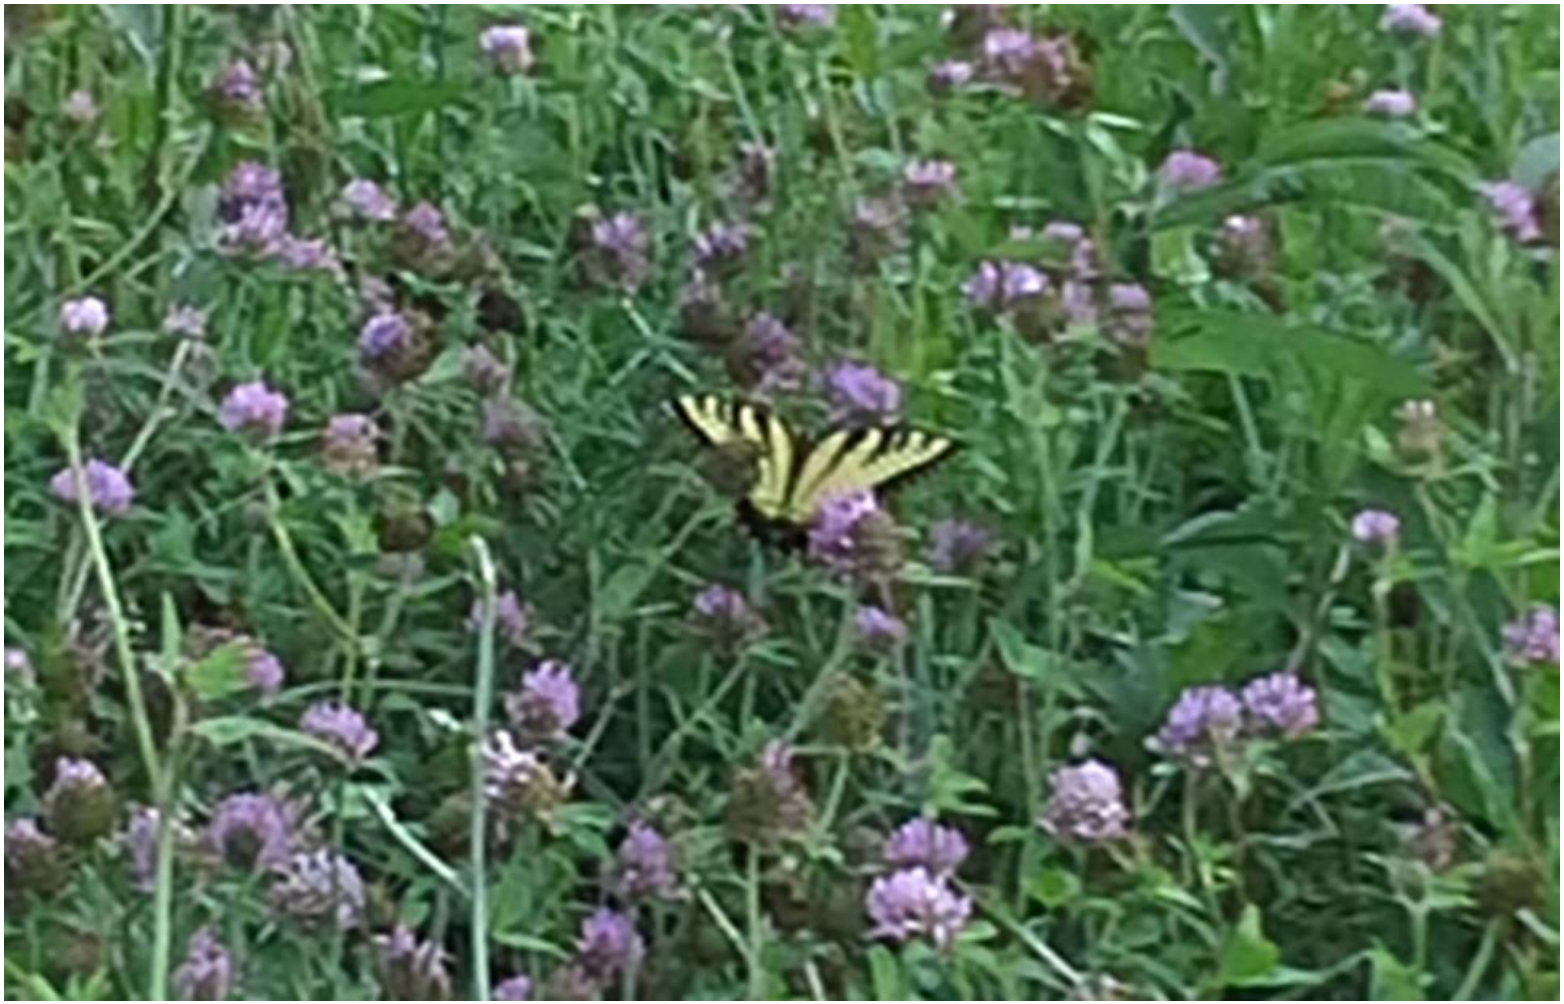

Why?

Where?

When?

How?

It happens

A few other observations and thoughts

Employment law is not written for the benefit of employer

Listen

Always be truthful

Work to be better every day

Know when to fight, know when to run

Arm yourself and remember your safety gear

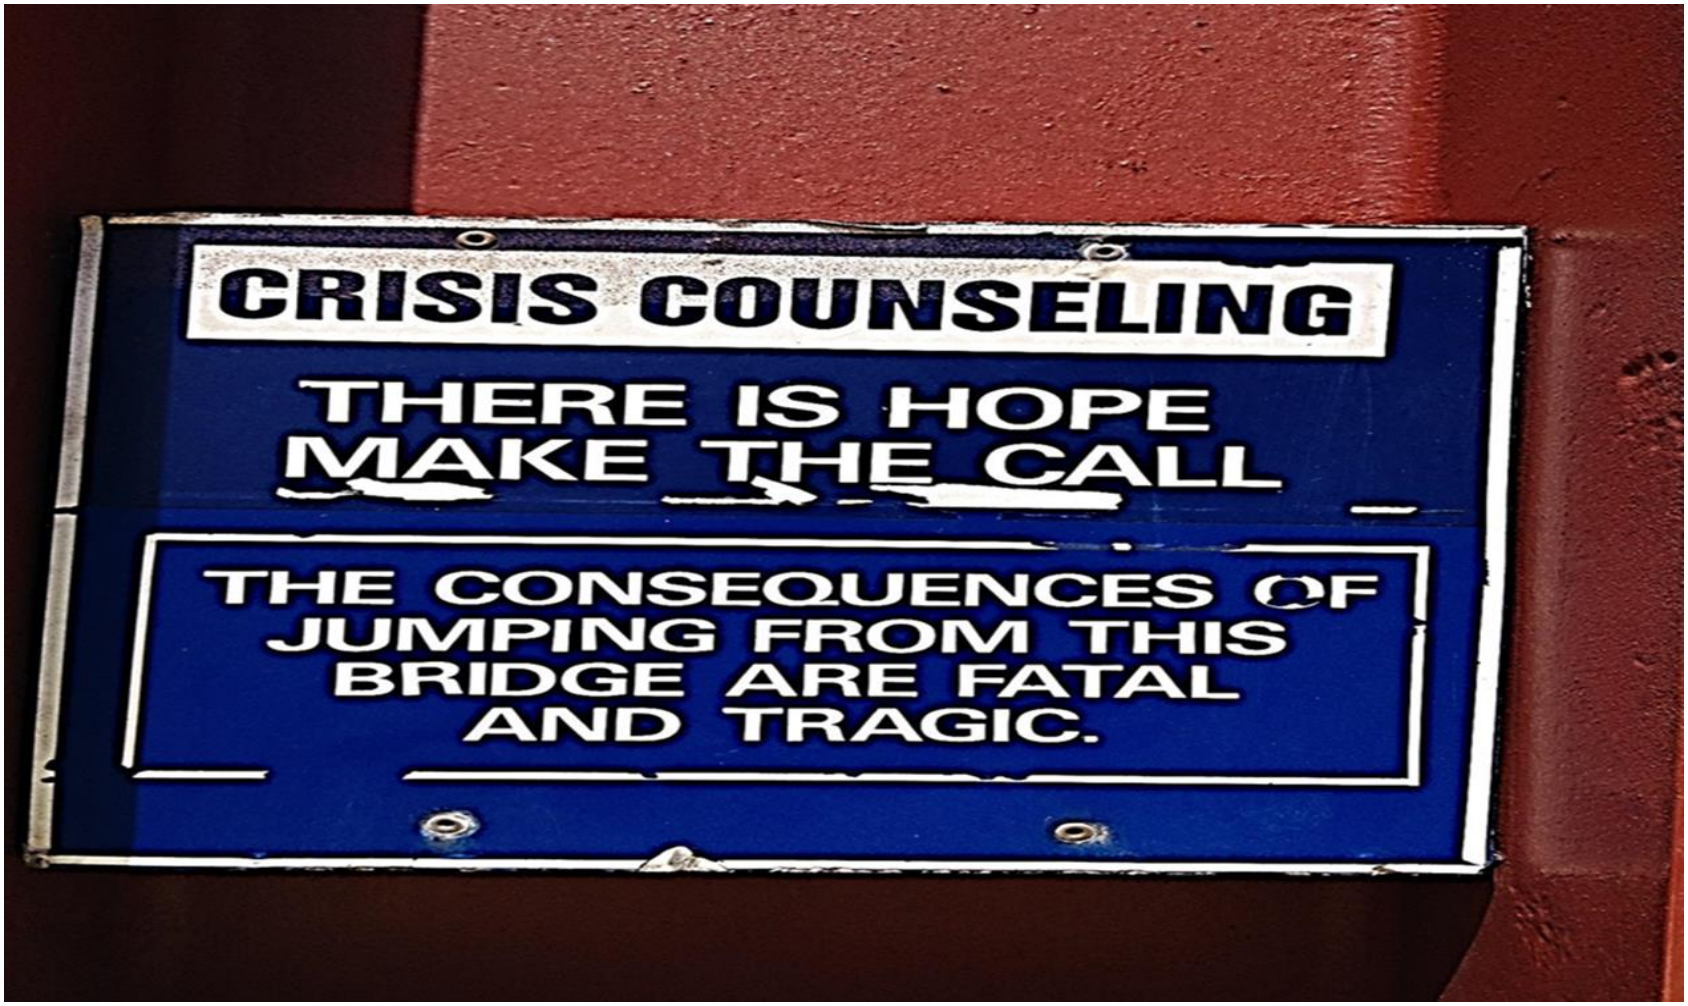

Always document - If it isn’t written, it didn't happen

Sometimes it just doesn’t go so well

There is hope

Questions?

