Post Office Department

WASHINGTON

January 17, 1949.

ORDER NO. 39606

It having been made to appear to the Postmaster General, upon evidence satisfactory to him, that

"PRINCE RICHARD, ONIKOYI OF IKOYI", at Lagos, Nigeria, is engaged in conducting a scheme for obtaining money through the mails by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises in violation of sections 259 and 732 of title 39, United States Code.

Now, therefore, by authority vested in him by said laws, the Postmaster General hereby forbids you to certify any postal money order drawn to the order of said party and you are hereby directed to inform the remitter of any such postal money order that payment thereof has been forbidden, and that the amount thereof will be returned upon the presentation of said order at the issuing office or in the event the original order is not available that repayment may be effected by means of a duplicate order applied for and obtained under the regulations of the Department.

And you are hereby instructed to return all letters and advices, whether registered or not, and other mail matter which shall arrive at your office directed to the said party to the postmasters at the offices at which they were originally mailed, to be delivered to the senders thereof, with the word "Fraudulent" plainly written or stamped upon the outside of such letters or matter. Provided, however, that where there is nothing to indicate who are the senders of letters not registered or other matter, you are directed in that case to send such letters and matter to the appropriate dead letter branch with the word "Fraudulent" plainly written or stamped thereon, to be disposed of as other dead matter under the laws and regulations applicable thereto.

(Signed) J. M. Donaldson

(Case No. 69782-F)

Postmaster General.

To all postmasters authorized to dispatch letter mail to Nigeria.

Brain Computer Interface

MIT Technology Review

- Scientists have found a way to decode brain signals into speech.
- It's a step towards a system that would let people send texts straight from their brains.
